Client Bill of Rights

Consumers of marriage and family therapy services offered by a marriage and family therapist licensed by the State of Minnesota have the right:

1. to expect that a therapist has met the minimal qualifications of training and experience required by state law;
2. to examine public records maintained by the Board of Marriage and Family Therapy which contain the credentials of a therapist;
3. to obtain a copy of the code of ethics from the Board of Marriage and Family Therapy, 2829 University Avenue SE, Suite 400, Minneapolis, MN 55414;
4. to report complaints to the Board of Marriage and Family Therapy;
5. to be informed of the cost of professional services before receiving the services;
6. to privacy as defined and limited by rule and law;
7. to be free from being the object of unlawful discrimination while receiving services;
8. to have access to their records as provided in Minnesota Statutes, section 144.291 to 144.298, except as otherwise provided by law or prior written agreement;
9. and to be free from exploitation for the benefit or advantage of a therapist.
