Notice of Health Information Privacy Practices (HIPAA)

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

Art Lab Rx is committed to protecting health information about you by complying to all applicable federal and state privacy and confidentiality laws and regulations. These laws require that health information that identifies you is kept private and confidential. These laws also require that we give you this notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to health information about you, and that we follow the terms of the notice that is currently in effect.

Understanding Your Health Record/Information

Each time you visit your Art Lab Rx Therapist, a record of your visit is made. Typically, this record contains your symptoms, examination and test results, diagnoses, treatment, and a plan for future care or treatment. This information, often referred to as your health or medical record serves as a:

- Basis for planning your care and treatment,
- Means of communication among the many health professions who contribute to your care,
- Legal document describing the care you received,
- Means by which you or a third-party payer can verify that services billed were actually provided,
- A tool in educating health professionals,
- A source of information for public health officials charged with improving the health of this state and the nation,
- A source of data for our planning and marketing, and
- A tool with which your Therapist can assess and continually work to improve the services rendered and the outcomes achieved

Understanding what is in your record and how your health information is used helps you to ensure its accuracy, better understand who, what, when, where, and why others may access your health information, and make more informed decisions when authorizing disclosure to others.

Your Health Information Rights

Although your health record is the physical property of your Therapist at Art Lab Rx, the information belongs to you. You have the right to:
